Messrs. Perregaux & Co Bankers Paris.
Vr. Homburg & Homburg freres & Co Havre
Strobell & Martini. Bourdeaux
Coffyn. fils. Dunkirk.
Baldemeeker & Co. Rotterdam
John Hodshon & Son. Amsterdam

Boston October 10th. 1799

Gentlemen,

The Bearer of this Mr. George Gibbs Junr. of the Respectable House of Messrs. Channing & Gibbs Newport Rhode Island, has Requested of me in case by any Event he should visit Your Respective Cities that I would furnish him with a Letter of Introduction and Credit to the Amount of Five hundred Pounds Sterling Money:— Convinced as I am that an acquaintance with him will prove highly agreeable to You, and that the arrangements he may make for Your Reimbursement of any Advances to that amount will be duly fulfilled:— I now introduce him to You, ask the extension of Your Friendship & attentions, and also pledge my Self for the payment of such Advances to the Extent of Five hundred Pounds Sterling:

I am with Respect
Your very Hbsw
[illegible]

The 11th. June 1800 paid Two hundred Pounds to George Gi[illegible] on account of the above credit by [illegible]