there is not a Young Man in the Town Whose Welfare the people at large have More at heart the best wishes of Every One You have they View You as One that must in a Short time take my place Only think what must be the Anxious hours Your Mother Sisters & my Self must have until Your Safe Returne make Your self of Consequence and all will be Right I must Confess I have no Reason to think Otherways that will help to keep my mind at Ease it is Probable You will Suppose this needless at the same time You must believe it Comes from One that has Your Interest more at heart then Any Other Man Can have) grate Attention to the Business You have in View is Absolutely Necessary and so is Frugality for You know Every Shilling Spent in London is more then three at home I Excpt. More from You than words can Express and I trust I shall not be Disapointed Therefore I am Only to Say my best Wishes Attend You from G G
