You ask me to let you know about my plans for the ensuing year. I shall leave for Switzerland on the 1st of July and spend a month of or 6 weeks in travelling there on foot. Then back again to Paris in August and on my return here will make up my mind from what I hear from home and from the then state of my funds whether to return home at once or to remain here till the Spring. I have given up all thought of going to Italy, as it I feel that it would be much more advantageous to me to study here during the winter. I have been taking lessons in

Pensioning and in Italian. Ma pensée I have relied mostly upon the lectures that we and daily intercourse with the French themselves. But I speak very imperfectly though I understand what is paid very well. My reproval of Griffen and made a very large hole in my letter of credit, and as I came from Germany entirely unprovided with clothes too to be my outfit here has cost me about $100 more. I think it right to mention this to you now — I do shall be very glad to see Apis letter. Illinois is more phone decision of character at least. And Hedden gave me all the latest
