Mr. George Gibbs Jr.

Havre 7 April 1803

Sir

I had the pleasure of addressing you [illegible] (under the firm of M. G. [illegible]) of the Warren that sailed the 5th the present serves to cover your bill of lading for two Cases forwarded for Mr. Grant by Cinsam Burts as he informs me & which I hope will get safe to hand as no Vessel was likely soon to offer for your place I thought it better to forward them as you directed your other Cases to care of Mr. Hugh Pollock of N York I should have had some satisfaction in hearing from Mr. Pollock or you that your Trunks are arrived safe — the Vessell ~~I have arrived~~ but nothing further
