Madam. New York July 14 1808

1808

I have to return you my most sincere thanks for your kindness in taking charge of my Daughters. They are in a situation that suits you and most pleasing to me. My only anxiety is, that so considerable an addition to your cares, may be very inconvenient if not injurious to your health. I pray you, whenever you find this to be the case, to inform me & I will provide for them, in the best manner I am able.

I was much concerned to hear that your son Richd returned unwell. - I must enter a complaint against him. - He never made his situation known to any of us - & I heard Mrs Rich, say that she did not know that he continued in Town. - I think I could have been useful to him, had I known that
