since writing the last there appears a Strong probability of Peace — letters from London of the 2nd April speak very favorably from our friends from that quarter which I have and more to be depended on than from this — Should Hostilities commence it will be from that side of the Channel — and this they will not undertake as yet, begun — Insurance is still at 2 guineas & 2½ which will remain so till all doubt is removed — Colonial produce is Indeed in great demand & Peace will probably hold it high as quoted — When I can be of Service to Mr. G. & K. Unsell You may depend on them Yours with great Regard Dear Sir

[illegible]

Your very Obd Servt

John Mitchell

This is inclosed with the bill of lading to Mr Pollock of the Steam Ship Co. Folger.