by Holland or some other channel, since we received this morning a letter from Messrs Overzee with & Greisinger of Bremen, demanding us whether they could send a box of Minerals which you had desired the Count of Salm to get sent to you, we desire this Guilt to dispatch the said box immediately, and when arrived shall send it to you by the first Vessel to New York; — we shall pay the Charges in advance and note that Miss Barclay will reimburse us for them, we have as yet received nothing this transfer, in hopes of having soon an opportunity to correspond for it already with you we have many other objects. We thank you sincerely for your friendly promise to recommend our firm occasionally, and we repeat that we shall pay the most pointed attention to all and every thing that comes from or through you — We refer you to our letter to you we have written regard to commercial advices, and soliciting a kind continuance of your valuable friendship we remain very sincerely Dear Sir Your most devoted Servants

÷ John Borenberg Gebrüder