you cannot come here, before you go on to Boston. I wish to see you very much, and if I was I certain of meeting you, I think I should take a passage with Mr. Goodhue, who receives this Letter. — I have however nothing important to say to you; my only motive would be, the pleasure of your Society; — I shall however see you soon, in the mean time with love to you & your good Husband I remain

Affy

Oliv. Wolcott.

Mrs L. Gibbs.