[1814]

The Funds of the Residuary Legatees of G G dec^d to pay Annuities, consist of

41 Shares Bank of Rhode Island, which has Divided of late Years only 6 per Ct. $492 —

[illegible] calculated from the 1st July [illegible]

10 Shares R I Bridge Comp^y — No Dividend can be expected this Year . . . 700

The payments now made are to Mrs S Champlin per Year . . .	300 —

Mrs E Greene do	216
In New York Trinity Church	20 —
Weekly allowance of $6 to Mr Robinson in per Year	312 . . .	848

That the payments now making will exceed the annual Income $148 — and on the payment of the last Instalment on the Shares of the Bank of the United States there will be wanting ~~about 500~~ from 5 to 600 Dolls — This may be supplied out of rents acc^d & to be acc^d for the Brothers & Sisters from the estate in Rhode Island — and while the annuities now existing are payable — the deficiency may be provided for annually, in this way — as it is not worth while to add to the fund — for on any one of the Annual allowances ceasing, the Interest will be ample for the remainder —

ENCLOSURE