I appeared so much pleased with my trees that I hope she has not forgotten to mention to you a large double flowering Cherry tree which would do your heart good to look at. — I saw Lady Sarah only half an hour we having passed each other on the Road. — E is very well delighted by with her house & her husband. Both of them are indeed very good though a little old fashioned — perhaps not the worse for that. — I thank you heartily for the Seeds. — I told me that she expects to return about the 4th July & wishes me to return with her, which if possible I will do. — Mr M. is here. E & he have quarrelled he entirely to blame. I never see him.

I write in haste

Yours truly Jgy.

Love to Mother tell her that she would be delighted to visit me now to arrange alter, and improve. — I am going in town this morning to carry E a box of butter. — L has made some cream cheese which do honor to the little lady. — apropos if you want to be married come on here for that purpose. It would make a fine paragraph in the newspaper. I will hire a steamboat to bring you the bruce monde, and
