satisfied I am, that if the present plan of the Corporation should be adopted and the Square above mentioned become private property to such an immense disadvantage to the publick, that the next Generation will at any expence however enormous, level their newly raised Structures to the ground, and erect a Monument in some Corner to designate the folly of their Predecessors. —

Publick Good.