George Gibbs Esqr — Canton Novem 11 1796

Dear Sir

I have the pleasure of informing you of our safe arrival here in good health the 30th after a passage of nearly 7 Months. Capt Wood having wrote the particulars of the voyage any thing on my part would [illegible] M. detained several days at Macao before we could get up to Wampoa when we left the Ship. On our arrival at Canton We called upon Capt Rose, having a letter for him & Capt Munro, and met with his invitation to stay with him 'till we could get a factory for ourselves - this we effected in four days. - We chose our Security Merchant after a little further delay, this being the first step to be done & the most important one. — The Business that passed before, was really a scene of intrigue & has more in it than a common years Experience. - We have however had every reason to approve of our arrangements. - Our Merchant who has most in his power & deserves us has a very good character, among all persons here; for the opinion of the World that the Chinese are all rogues is not entirely true. - There are two or three Men here who by every information I can procure possess as much integrity as any Merchants whatever and the Americans are so high in repute here & so desirable from the Money they bring, that they are solicitous in general to observe their particular custom. The strongest argument that we can use to a Chinese is "I think you love your Sons" last year the Americans this year with the two Danish Ships have left
