(Copy) Charleston April 18th 1798

Mr. George Gibbs Junr.

Dr. Sir

Refering to our several respects before address'd you, to which we remain without a reply.

We have now only to enclose you our draft in your favor on Messrs Fry & Spolding Merchants Philadelphia at Sixty days sight for one thousand Dollars, which please credit us in a/c on your receiving payment. We shall write you again in a day or two when you shall be particularly advis'd of the state of your Sales interim we are &c.

Rogers Barker & Lord.

April 19. 1798

Dear Sir

We now enclose second of abovementioned exchange and have further to advise you that the gross amount of Sales for your account up to the present date is a little short of twenty eight hundred Dollars a considerable part of which will not be due in some time and amount of our remittances including the above is nearly twenty three hundred Dollars so that we are now in advance in our remittances [illegible]