L. Bradish
July 17. 1819

Dear Sir

I am [illegible] that I happened from my lodgings when your note of the 12. was left. I did not receive it until this morning. I was glad to learn by it, as well as from Doct.s Stevens, that Mrs. Gibbs and your little Daughter are as well as can be expected. Mr. Mowatt has not yet paid any part of His Bond but now promises positively to do so on Monday or, at farthest, Thursday next. I have handed your Overseer, Mr. Avery, $50, agreeably to your request.

I saw Mr. Hall of Comfort a few days since who requested me