Litchfield April 29th 1823

My dear Sir

1823.

I have rec'd your Letter of Wednesday informing me of the birth of another Son. and that Laura & the Infant were as well as could be expected. I pray God to preserve the lives of both for the comfort & honour of their connexions.

I rec'd a Box with a number of Plants & Seeds, for which I thank you sincerely. The Spring is opening fast & Ploughing and Gardening commencing which is early for us. We are all well as usual. The next week I go to Hartford, where I shall be glad to receive Letters from you. when you write please to mention, when you heard from Mr. Channing & when he is expected from Europe.

Give my Wifes & love to Laura, George, Elizabeth, Wolcott & the dear Infant. Oliver, John & Jane unite

Yours very affectionately

Oliv. Wolcott.

Edw. George Gibbs
