(Copy) Charleston April 18th 1798

Mr. George Gibbs Junr.

Dr Sir

Referring to our several prospects before addressd you, to which we remain without a reply.

We have now only to enclose you our draft on your favor on Messrs Fry & Spalding Merchants Philadelphia at Sixty days sight for one thousand Dollars, which please credit us in a/c on your receiving payment. We shall write you again in a day or two when you shall be particularly advisd of the state of your Sales interim we are &c.

Rogers Barker & Lord.

April 19. 1798

Dear Sir We now enclose a recpt of abovementiond exchange, and have further to advise you that the gross amount of Sales for your account up to the present date is a little short of twenty eight hundred Dollars a considerable part of which will not be due in some time — and amount of our remittances including the above, (as made) twenty three hundred Dollars — so that we have now in advance on