probably continue to hear much at W. about the Intrigues of our Finnibrats and the Plots for disturbing the regular line of Succession and usurping the Honors of the Palace, or White House.
But we may ere annum not These are mere Phantoms for the Amusement of Political Brawlers and Headdreamers at Home, and as Bugbears to disquiet weak Nerves abroad Distance. Take it for granted we shall often all continue to go on much in the Old way.

Yr Hearty
Friend
L. Wallis

Newport 6. Feb. 1818.

Col. Gibbs