1819. June 2

Dear Sir,

The accompanying Papers being in Mr. Hamilton's Office that closed and he absent, I could not obtain them in time to send them to You previous to Your departure from New York on my 1. inst. And therefore, now forward them to You by Mail, and beg You will have the goodness, when they are executed, to return them to me by the same Conveyance if a safe private opportunity should not occur at the moment. It is important to me that I
