design, to form, a general repository, of value to Scholars & antiquarias, and which if not retained in some private Library, ought to be deposited ~~with~~ in some public, & permanent literary institution.

During several of the last years, I have ~~been~~ bestowed much time & attention in digesting & forming Lists of these documents and of my private manuscripts — my design is far from being compleated, from the materials already in my possession. — The volumes which have ~~been~~ been arranged, contain my hand writing on ~~most~~ many, of them, with manuscript notes. — I have ever considered most of them, as private & confidential documents, & I am willing to submit to a sufficient examination, by any men of honor, to verify the truth of these assertions.

I have a few Editions of costly & valuable Books, which are my own & property; — to deprive me of the temporary use of these books, seems to me cruel, useless & unnecessary, ~~unless~~ especially before it is legally ascertained that this great sacrifice ~~is necessary~~ is necessary to secure the Interests of the Bank, as a monied institution.

I feel that I ought not to request any of my friends to involve themselves, in the tecnicalities of the Law, to relive

my
