long standing mutinied and strengthened by a hope of its ultimate success.

I conclude the subject by asking that forgiveness and approbation which from your respected marks of attachment on former aberrations I am inclined to hope you will bestow.

I am Sir
Your
affectionate Son
Oliver Wolcott

To
His Excellency
Oliver Wolcott