Boston July 4. 1827.

Colo. Geo. Gibbs,

Dear Sir,

I very much regret the Settlement cannot be made with Mr. Bradish altho' the amount is [illegible] been demanded yet I believe it would be for the best of yourself Brother & Sister to accept the offer, I do not believe it will effect your settlement with W Bowdoin; I have this day seen several Notes which Mr. Channing rec'd as his part of the Division of Miss Gibbs & Channings property which have not nor will they ever be collected this will operate as an offset to the Tenhill Farm should you have any claim - but whatever demand you might have had at the time for loss or compensation on the Duby Debt I think you have lost by lapse of time or by your Mother in her life time assenting to the management of Mr. Channing. ——

As your Sister Channing is now on Rhode Island & can act for herself & Miss Gibbs likewise I do not like to undertake to leave the busines
