[1823, Aug. ]

Wednesday morn[g]

My dear Grandpapa

This is the second letter

I ever wrote in my life

Papa brought me to Albany three months since to spend the summer with Mrs Kane and to study with her little boys

I hope you are well:- How does Uncle Oliver and Uncle John do. I hope Aunt Jane is well.- I am my dear Grandpapa your affectionate grandson

George Gibbs