I am led by the tenor of a former communication from you when the remittance of $78 was made, to suppose that you are anxious to have the arrears of those annuities paid - and am disposed to second your wishes actively if you will give me the proper & requisite directions - If therefore I am not mistaken in supposing your wish & intention that the beforementioned dividends sh[illegible] [illegible] directions to that effect conformably to the annexed form, I will apply the requisite amt. from 1d. Credits to that Object -

Please let your Order lie so apart from any other communication that I may file it as a voucher in Bank

very respectfully

Yt. Obd. St

W. Marchant Cashr

(form) New York Feby 1828

To Wm. Marchant, Cashier of the Bank of Rhode Island -

Please pay to Mrs. Elizabeth Greene & to Miss Ruth Champlin - out of monies in said Bank - to Credit of the Executors of George Gibbs - being dividends on Stock in Sd. Bank & in the R. I. Bridge Co. three hundred thirty eight dollars - viz to Mrs. Greene one hundred twenty seven dollars, & [illegible] Champlin one hundred sixty one dollars - being arrears of annuities [illegible] by virtue of the last will [illegible] of my late Hond. Father George Gibbs deceased to them & Intr

(signed) - G. G. Surviving Executor

P.S. You probably will recollect that the annuity to Mrs. Greene was $54 quarter-yearly - to Miss Champlin $50 - do -

Feby 20 - sent Mr. Marchant a power as above materially - G. Gibbs -