Philadelphia June 9. 1829

Dear Sir

I left Boston May 31. on a journey South in company with Mrs H for the benefit of her health. Our stay in New York was so short, that I had not time to call and pay my respects to you and your wife. I shall attempt it on my return, unless I am delayed here so long that my homeward journey must be so rapid as to prevent it. Our boat sets on Monday next, and I am under the necessity of being in Boston on Saturday. If I do not call to see you before friday, it will not be in my power to visit you afterwards, as I must leave New York in the steam boat on friday at 3. If it will be convenient for you to be in New York on friday. I shall be happy to see you, and can give you more satisfactory answers to your letter of the 3rd which I received here last evening than by writing. I shall put up at the Adelphi Hotel. Broadway.
