with Servants, they cannot be worse in N. Y. than they are here!

We have had several very entertaining new works this last Summer, you have the same of Mrs. Segars campaign in Kupid — & the Elder Segars Memoirs, & those of Genlis, the latter, how droll & yet how disgusting & ridiculous, I can't endure the woman!!! If you have not read Mad^m Campan's Journal pour servir [illegible] & it, with the exception of that story of the Lady & the petroqueet, & some other defects in her notions on education, you will be delighted with the book.

It is not that I have distrusted your Taste, which was always so perfect, that has prevented me from intruding upon you with my wants, but now that you indulge me with so fair a permission, I will avail myself of it, for I cannot suit myself at all here, & I am really without a winter Bonnet tho' I have both a Parisian Cloak & Redingote. I wish you would purchase for me, or get made for me a Black Velvet bonnet, I wish you could contrive to find out who made Mrs Codmans (Miss Dr Masters) for she brought one with her from N York, & as she is the Bride every thing she wears, and from N.Y. must be the Fashion, & I should like to have it as nearly like hers as possible — I have enquired of Mrs D what Milliner made it, but the matter in that family you know, is so important, that the question has been answered by
