with Servants, they cannot be worse in N. Y than they are here!

We have had several very entertaining new works this last Summer, you have the same of course Segurs campaign in Russia — & the Elder Segurs Memoirs, & those of Genlis, the latter, how droll & yet how disgusting & ridiculous, I can't endure the woman!!! If you have not read Mde Campan's [illegible] that story of the Lady & the picturesque Uncle, & some [illegible] defects in her notions on education, you will be delighted with the book.

It is not that I have distrusted your Taste, which was always so perfect, that has prevented me from intruding upon you with my wants, but now that you indulge me with so fair a permission, I will avail myself of it, for I cannot suit myself at all here, & I am really without a winter Bonnet tho' I have both a Parisian Cloak & Redingotte. I wish you would purchase for me, or get made for me a Black Velvet bonnet, I wish you could contrive to find out who made Mrs Godmans (Miss Mc Masters) for she brought one with her from N York, & as she is the Bride every thing she wears, and from N.Y, must be the Fashion, & I should like to have it as nearly like hers as possible — I have enquired of Mrs & what milliner made it, but the matter in that family you know, is so important, that the question has been and by
