what is wanted on Long Island. When the roads permit, I will send you the Yarn & Cheese. Let me know any thing else, which we have & it shall come. I do not wonder that the conduct of the Rambler should be very distressing to your connections. I think of them often, especially of the Ladies.

As you hear & see what is passing in N. York, which is our World, I rely upon you for all the news & anecdotes which you may depend upon it are distributed by me, with extreme Caution, or not at all. We have a Mr. Stone, an Episcopalian, but very much like a Puritan, he is a handsome man, a fine Speaker, very popular & interesting. Olivia, John & Jane, go frequently: with love to your husband I am ever your Father.
