New York Oct 15th 1827.

Pay to William Marchant Esqr Cashier of the Bank of Rhode Island, or order Seventy Eight dollars.

George Gilbert

The Jr Prime Ward King & Co.

New York Oct 15th 1827.

Be so good as to pass the above to my Credit in the Bank of Rhode Island, as surviving Executor of the estate of my father and I will ~~arrange~~ arrange for other funds to be placed there with this being for the payment of the annuities to Mrs Greene & Miss Champlin

As you have paid the annuities for a number of years by Mr Channings direction, I hope you will consent to continue it from this ~~time~~ fund as soon as received I have directed Mr Elisha Sherman to pay you the ballance of Rent in his hands and to show you his accounts – My brother will give you any further information about it and pay you all monies which he may collect for the estate.

With great regard

Wm Marchant.

Your Obdt Servt George Gilbert
