Cannot by discounted here there seems to be an objection to Corporations without the State. ——

I Have lately had an application for the Jon Hill Farm it is wanted by a Company of Gentlemen for a Stock Farm — the situation in which it is placed requires some attention to get a good [illegible] the Heirs conclude to sell — It is now held by the Heirs of Walter Channing — I have a bond or declaration of Trust from Mr Channing & I presume there can be no doubt that the Heirs are bound to make the conveyance but as one of them is a Minor application must be made to the Supreme Court for the purpose — this application must be made by the Heirs of your Mother —— there is much to be done by you & your Brother & Sister, to bring to a close several concerns, If some time should be appointed to meet in Boston & a few days devoted to a settlement of all Accounts I have no doubt an adjustment could be made satisfactory to all concerned, but without such a Meeting & a full determination of all the Heirs I fear
