Berlin. Sunday Nov 30th 68

Dear Mother

I wrote a long letter to Elsie the Steamer of the 9th & the Nuggets have been playing here a fortnight written a week ago and have since received yours of the 16th & 17th giving an account of your travels as far as Vienna. So I shall begin now where and I am glad you had welcome. My letter to Elsie was from Dresden & I suppose you got it. I left there on the 3rd of September & continued from Prague and spent nearly four weeks in the to Linz & that of the 10th & letter you will probably have seen before this reaches you. Since writing I have received a letter from you written at Dresden this was my last before entering Austria as I could not trust the Austrian post office. I left Dresden on the 3rd of September & continued from Prague and spent nearly four weeks in the Last night I received a letter from you dated 23rd November giving an account of your travels as far as Vienna. I left Dresden