Newport Jan 24. 1829

Dear Sir

I rec'd your letter last week did not reply immediately because I wished to ascertain if any thing could be done with your Bank shares. There is some difficulty in my disposing of shares as our bank has a considerable number to dispose of [illegible] Sanders is generally [illegible] the Bank — I will continue my exertions, but in the mean time I think it will be best to transfer the Shares back to you, which I will do shortly and advise you thereof — I was about remitting you $50. which is the smallest amt for which I could obtain a check for on New York, which I had made up the this way, say $25 dividend on your Shares $15. Cash rec'd for yrs Cent Gyps let. & $10 Cent bt before Mr Bannisters house, which is all I now have in my hands of yours, not having as yet rec'd any thing from N. Smith, which I shall endeavour to collect as soon as possible. The payment of the sums you request will prevent the remittance intended, to which I have to add the Amt of Ohio Taxes on Share belonging to Estate of G Gibbs $8,95. which I shall pay & forward you the rect with Mr Marchant's rect for rent. which I have rec'd

Yours truly Hadley Clarke