not have fortunate in his choice; give my best regards to the doctors all, I always [illegible] when I see the address on your letters "Dr". And the Germans who are excriminatingly [illegible] "Herr Doctor" me almost to death. It is however not so bad here as in Vienna where I [illegible] generally either Herr von Gibbs or Euer Gnaden "your Grace". I expect to chuckle amazingly over Johan Augustus Smitts Nation which I hope will arrive soon. Remember me to all [illegible] at home I must I suppose address each of you in my next letter separately. Now I must close with love to all Yours ever Wolcott

I hope Ma will go to Sharon. Tell Mary Eustis she owes me a letter.

[illegible] Sept. [illegible] 1851. Direct always to Berlin simply, and not to the care of Rose as you did with the books. I am tired of writing about postage but I will only remark that it is [illegible] to have [illegible] stamp on his letters as he does. Paid to London Westminster. They are paid to London and not one foot farther as I always pay 7½ groschen upon them which is the exact postage from London. Letters for which I have paid cost me 88 cents. Where for which you pay Hamburg costs you $1.00 and amounts 0.16 cts. Perhaps the difference is not in the prepaid address. I am sorry that Carson is sick with Mammoth. He is too [illegible] and good-natured to get along well with his wife's family and I am afraid he
