It became very clear, in a short time after I had displayed my collections of genealogies of our family to Mr Morgan Gibbes, that we were relations, & we could almost point out the precise link, which connected the several branches of the family. My descent is through an elder Branch, & Mr Morgan Gibbes is included in a Pedigree of Governor Holdsworths, who had married a Miss Marcella Gibbes, & who to this day enjoys [illegible] same bromker. The Pamphlet, [illegible] this part of the Story. — I must now tell you that there are many collateral branches of the family, & one, wherein I believe you might be included. — I have had some correspondence with Mr George Gibbs of Belmont, near Bristol, a Gentleman of Fortune, a well known Merchant whose Father was Brother of Sir Vicary Gibbs a celebrated Judge in England. — He had for years known of this want of Heir to the Property in Devonshire, & some of his family to the present day, are I believe eager in tracing their relationship. — A Brother of this Mr Gibbs of Belmont, a Mr Josepher James Gibbs has given me information respecting a Bristol Pedigree of the family, but as yet, I have not been able to see it. It is almost impossible for me to give you even an outline of what I have collected, indeed of what has flowed in to me from various Quarters, without my having left my house at all. Within a day or two, I have received several genealogical papers, respecting Lady Dering née Gibbes, from the Archives preserved in Sir Edward Dering's family. — She was the Daughter of Sir Ralph Gibbes, mentioned in the Pamphlet you sent, & Aunt as we think of a forefather of Mr Morgan Gibbes, who was a Son of Sir Henry, & who migrated to America. — I have an account of two of Sir Henry Gibbes' Sons one who went to Virginia & the other to New England, the first John Gibbes the other Robert,
