You ask me to let you know about my plans for the evening year. I shall leave for Switzerland on the 1st of July and spend a month or 6 weeks in travelling there on foot. Then back again to Paris in August and on my return here will make up my mind from what I hear from home and from the [illegible] state of my funds whether to return home at once or to remain here till the Spring. I have given up all thoughts of going to Italy, as it I feel that it would be much more advantageous to me to study here during the winter. I have been taking lessons in fencing and in Italian. Mr. Fenel I have relied mostly upon the lectures therein and daily interconnection with the French themselves. But I speak very imperfectly though I understand what is paid very well. My reproval of Griffen and made a very large hole in my letter of credit, and as I came from Germany entirely unprovided with clothes to get a my outfit here has cost me about $100 more. I think it right to mention this to you now — I do shall be very glad to see Apis letter. Illinois [illegible] of character at least. Mrs Hilden gave me all the latest more [illegible] decision of character at least.

Mr. Yorke [illegible] Rob Levy [illegible] Stitt in Cuyland and remains till July. I hope for a letter from you next Wednesday. Love to Lana & Liza and all at home.

Your affectionate Pat Wolcott
