fencing and in Italian. For French I have relied mostly upon the lectures theatres and daily intercourse with the French themselves. But I speak very imperfectly though I understand what is said very well. My repayal of Griffen ~~and~~ made a very large hole in my letter of credit, and as I came from Germany entirely unprovided with clothes boots &c my outfit here has cost me about $100 more. I think it right to mention this to you now — I shall be very glad to see Ap's letter. Oliver's move shows decision of character at least. Fred Sheldon gave me all the latest

Mr Yorke Gorsip. Red Sevy to Stille in Guy Court and remains till July. I hope for a letter from you next Wednesday. Love to Lang & Liza and all at home.
Your affectionate Jas Wolcott
