I have got a season ticket for the Athenaeum exhibition which was only half a dollar there are some very fine old pictures & some excellent modern ones. One Madonna struck me, it was only a bust with folded hands, & most ~~beautiful~~ exquisite but the face was that of a broadway belle & as far from a Mary as heaven is from earth — another madonna had a face with a fair Yorkshire Jew herself — Although dark is there — Isaac of York — vide Ivan[illegible] very fine picture indeed have a[illegible] as [illegible] in no particular scene or it is as well be any other Jew. It is of full size & down to the waist — Poor man he paints for his bread & can hardly get even that — But I must give Bess a line Love to all — George —
