niece six shares of land, in Southhampton Parish Bermuda, which was left in trust to the Earl of Manchester which she got, and to which I now am Heir - it still retains the name of Gibbs' Hill - It would seem from the Genealogical Pamphlet that I am a descendant from Sir Henry Gibbs of Hunnington and Elizabeth Temple Daughter of Sir Thomas Temple, one of whose Sons settled at Barbados -

My Bermuda ancestor must either have been the Thomas Gibbs heir of Hunnington or his son, or a son of John who resided at Barbados or of one of the elder Brothers and possibly the missing heir of Hunnington. His marriage with Miss Hunt would determine which -
