New York May 20 1833

Dear Sir

I am requested by Murray to say to you that he will give $600 for your Meeting House lot. This I promised to communicate to you this afternoon, I am too much in haste to say anything more at present. Mr Randolph is still engaged in the trial of Avery, of course nothing more has been done about your deed —

Yours truly

Hadley Clarke

Col Geo Gibbs