1798. Dec.r 18

Memorandum to Jung Gibbs Jr.

The Brig Little Sally Capt Hudson will dispatched to Mast. St Maria de Cuida, for a cargo of Sugar, should she not have sailed, you will persuade those Gentlemen to expedite her to sail with the first Convoy.

We shall send on the Brig Jr immediately to your charge for a cargo of Molasses unless Sugars should be at eight dollrs for white or five dollars for brown, in which case we shall wish to be shipped in her Two or three hundred boxes Sugar, & the residue of her Cargo with Molasses, we shall however write you particularly by the Brig respecting our wishes for her return Cargo.

On your arrival at the Havannah, & during your residence there, White Sugars of the first quality should be had at or under eight dollars per Cwt and brown Sugars at or under five dollars per Cwt you may purchase from Five hundred to One thousand boxes Sugar, proportion of each, or wholly of one kind if at lower prices than when purchased together, and freight it by the fastest Vessels either to this Port, Boston, New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore, in one or two hundred boxes by one Vessel. If you ship to Boston