your son George has this moment called on me he informs me that his Mother wrote him that you are confined to the House — I regret to learn this. —

It has given me much pleasure to learn that your Son has established so good a reputation at Cambridge for his attention to his Studies and high standing as a young Gentleman. —