of annoyance to me everywhere I left home. I shall also probably wish to return there on business for a few weeks. They are crowded like a fair here with us - about 25 cts a person of an hour. About the German letters however I have not yet made up my mind. This letter will I hope go by the steamer of the 6th of June. You can direct to me Berlin Prussia No 8 Neustadtische Kirchstrasse. 3 Treppen high - it is not necessary to write the direction in German characters - indeed it would only produce difficulty in the French or English post office. You may send a letter by the Steamer to Liverpool or by Packet to Hamburg or to Bremen. Bremen, the last is the shortest. I shall be able to give you a fuller account of my mode of life, expences &c when I next write. Let me know what has happened since? Is Mrs Lane like her new home & how Robert & Mary are to her. I should be glad to have you call on Capt Matthews when he returns to N.Y. and ask after a guide whom I contract on board the ship and who I believe had the scarlet disease. I left him at Hamburg with the letter the Captain is the best fellow I almost ever knew and was universally liked on board ship. You must make my compliments
