of annoyance to me ever since I left home. I shall also probably write to Detroit from Germany for a few weeks. They are crowded cheaper here than with us - about 25 cts a dozen of our home. About the German Ladies however I have not yet made mind. This letter will I hope go by the steamer of the 6th June. You can direct to me Berlin Prussia No 8 Neustadtische Reichestrasse. 3 Treppen hoch. It is not necessary to write the direction in German characters - indeed it would only produce difficulty with the French or English post office. You may send either by the Steamer to Liverpool or by Packet to Havre & so through France, the last is the cheapest. I shall be able to give you a fuller account of my mode of life, expenses &c when I next write. Let me know what has happened since I left you. know Chase likes her new home &c how Robert & Harry are in Mexico. I should be glad to hear you call on Capt Gutterry when he returns to the U.S. and ask after Capt Paine whom I doubtless met on board the ship and who I believe had the varioloid disease. I left him at Havana with the Mexicans the Captain is the best fellow I almost ever knew and was universally liked on board ship. You must excuse my scribbling
