accomplished I should suppose. Will you enclose the enclosed notes & send them with the books in case of their arrival. Perhaps the proof of the reformed congregation in Berlin could forward them - perhaps you could write to the two gentlemen - perhaps you can forward them at once to their address - If I did not believe that you would do what is right by yourself & do nothing more than your time & to accomplish I should not trouble you in this manner - I believe now you understand what I want.

I am very anxious to hear of your position & prospects. I have been doing little & am rather falling back than advancing. I know that a life of diligent as insatiable exertions will be inconsistent with my happiness & respectability & yet I see no outside before me on which I shall [illegible] Memorandum however - Dear Will, I must soon tell you how much I long to see you & how much satisfaction I shall receive from your first letter - I have filled this epistle with [illegible] as most interesting to you where there is so little room - Every thing here is moving in much as it left it, though where there is so much life you will see great change & when you return - (I see that Cserski is pastor of Schneidemühl) will you write me your address & the means of sending to you. I send by [illegible] the letter to the Continent or as far as possible - We are having a fine summer without drought - Dr Page at Washington has had a magnificent machine which I hope will have nothing to [illegible] reaction - I am having one built on the principle of his - He has a magnet with a revolving electromagnet - It moves with a good deal of force - Write me the scientific news & whatever strikes you - Is the true meaning of Konge's reform - Is it a second great schism of the Church? - I would willingly do it - Is it a reform toward liberal Christianity or Calvinism? - I fear the [illegible] do something to make it the former - Very truly yrs Wm

You had best say nothing of my coming -