owing to the season of the year, I was mines before the spring storms set in, employment for some months, still void. A portion of this journal only yond the mere occasion & its relation jects of the Indian treaties. As to the manners &c - Geography, mining &c means of extending & correcting those prior of any account, you shall discover & I will just throw in proper shape. tain at any rate from the publication ers - But upon this matter times. You must recollect that tents or under the broad canopy of writing are more of the best, that with me when travelling on my own in any camp, dare not have them them at some trading post where occasionally. I cannot afford a mule have either to pack what I need, getting my things carried for me. These lost me nearly a months work out of ation which the more induces me had before made, not any great amount close of the first month about a hundred expenses & outfit. This has been somewhat I shall work up again. The mines they have been, & a half ounce a