this by the Steamer of the 4th of August September or October as most convenient to you and then I shall receive your letter in time to reply to it by the 4th of the ensuing Months &c. Tell me learn all about New Haven, and our friends there, Your occupations, excursions &c. Do you find yourself gaining anything? I believe that our doings as and customs, stands here very steadily upon my own legs. Besides myself and one minister and there is but one American here, a Virginian of whom I see but little. In the winter however quite a number, and I found it here when I arrived. Dear Thom is W.H.C getting on with your affairs life? and what has become of his congregation? is it still in existence. I need scarcely utter you to remember and to all at home and to thank Mary for her lines. You may show her the gossiping part of my letter which I have from a good part of it, and she shall hear more particularly from me hereafter. Let me know if there are prospects of a Mrs [illegible] C. & believe me Yours Ever truly Wm Gibbs — P.S. If you write after the 4th of September, direct your letter there promptly to me at Berlin. What has become of our Lectures at Hartford?

This letter when done with to be enclosed in a half sheet of paper & returned to W.G.
