by the Sheffield. Direct always to Berlin simply and not to the care of Rose as you did with the books. I am tired of writing about postage but I will only remark that it is ridiculous to have Saunders stamp on his letters as he does "Paid to London & intermediate" they are paid to London and not one foot further as I always pay 7½ pfennigs upon them which is the exact postage from London. Letter for which Come unpaid cost me 28 cents! Silver for which you pay Saunders costs you $1.00 and myself 0.76 ct. Perhaps the difference is not worth quarrelling about. I am sorry that Carson is sold into Mormonism. He is too easy and good natured to get along well with his wife's family and I am afraid has
