Cambridge Aug 24 1846.

My dear Mr. Gibbs

I received yesterday
Saunders gown valuable gift & I will not delay a single day to thank you for it. Dining in Boston a week or two since George Brooks was mentioned — my host had just purchased it — and I was urged to take it home with me to read, which I did, & had just entered upon it when your parcel was delivered.
I shall now go through it with more comfort & profit. As a history of Federal times through the letters of the great men of the period & especially those of your Father I shall place a great value upon it. George Brooks is to whom was spoken of with great interest by the gentlemen whom while I had the
