some general visit you could set apart a week or a few days for as it would give us I cannot tell how much pleasure. — His My wife ought to say rather than I, I suppose, but at this moment she is engaged in [illegible] and stands in her [illegible]

place. — It is not wholly impossible that I may solicit your presence in the course of the Summer — & possibly you may be induced to return with me.

With love & kind remembrances to all of your family Love affectionately

your friend
W Ware.

000182