Halle 14 Juli 1846

Herrn W. E. Channing in Boston U.S. sage ich für freundliche Uebersendung der Werke seines edlen Vaters meinen herzlichen Dank. Die Sympathie welche unsere Kämpfe für freie Religion in dem freien Nord-Amerika finden uns und uns besonders auch mein sehr werther, und die Zeichen davon sehr ermuthigend in dem Drucke unter dem wir hier seufzen bekannt hatte Herrn Channing um wenig, meine kleinen Schriften, die ich bei nächster Gelegenheit demselben durch den Buchhandel zuzusenden gedenke, als ein Zeichen meines

Dear Sir, Yours truly

Ich empfehle mich Ihnen Herr W.E. Channing! I have received as yet no pamphlets from him but I suppose he will send them as direct to you through the booksellers. I shall send you about a dozen pamphlets with this. I fancy with my own books and other things I am as yet undecided as to my future in the Spring. I do not wish to return without seeing Switzerland and if possible the north of Italy. I must spend 6 months in Paris for the sake of the language and also to hear the great Lectures there on Physics and Chemistry mates. However about this hereafter. There is nothing very new or interesting in science here. The gun cotton fever is going down and it is much doubted as to whether it will ever come into use. The methods of preparing it are now long since known & in the papers where you have doubtless seen them. The great evils are that the cotton always leaves an atmosphere of nitrous acid in the gun barrel and periodically that it often explodes in drying or in ramming down. The great political news of the day is the incorporation of Cracow into the Austrian dominions by the 3 powers Russia Prussia & Austria in direct violation of the agreement entered into at the Vienna Congress of Vienna by these 3 powers. England and France are these often insulted and scoffed at and they must take the matter up. This will probably bring about a reestablishment of the Entente Cordiale between France and England and will ever keep these 2 up for the future against the other 3. Now the Prussians as a people detest the Russians and despise the Austrians and yet they have been forced to throw themselves into the arms of both and make for the future common cause with them. This will probably help the Liberal cause in Prussia considerably and I think exert a great moral influence in Germany. Stocks are falling everywhere and I look with impatience for the action of the French and

000200