Halle 14 Juli 1846

Herrn W. E. Channing in Boston U.S. sage ich für freundliche Uebersendung der Werke seines religiösen theuren Namens herzlichen Dank. Die Sympathien welche unsere Kämpfe für freie Religion in dem freien Nord-Amerika finden uns und uns besonders auch mir selber werth, und die Zeichen davon sehr erquicken in dem Drucke unter dem wir hier seufzen. Ich bitte Herrn Channing um genaue meine kleinen Schriften, die ich bei nächster Gelegenheit demselben durch den Buchhandel zuzuschicken gedenke, also ein Zeichen meines Dankes, freundlich aufzunehmen. Zuletzt Halle Wohlgemuth.

Ich empfehle mich Ihnen Herr Wesselhoeft! I have received as yet no pamphlets from him but I suppose he will send them as direct to you through the booksellers. I shall send you about a dozen pamphlets in the Spring with my own books and other things. I am as yet undecided as to my plans in the Spring. I do not wish to return without seeing Switzerland and if possible the north of Italy. I must spend 6 months in Paris for the sake of the language and also to hear the great Lectures there on Physics and Maths matics. However about this hereafter. There is nothing very new - a interesting in science here. The gun cotton fever is going down and it is much doubted as to whether it will ever come into use. The methods of purifying it are long known & in the papers when you have doubtless seen them. The great evils are that the cotton always leaves an atmosphere of nitrous acid in the gun barrel and secondly that it often explodes in drying or in ramming down. The great political news of the day is the incorporation of Cracow into the Austrian dominions by the 3 powers Russia Prussia & Austria in direct violation of the agreement entered into at the Congress of Vienna by the 5 great powers. England and France are thus openly insulted and scoffed at and they must take the matter up. This will probably bring about a reestablishment of the Entente Cordiale between France and England and will array them 2 ago for the future against the other 3. Now the Russians as a people detest the Russians and despise the Austrians and yet they have been forced to throw themselves into the arms of both and make for the future common cause with them. This will probably help the Liberal cause in Prussia considerably and I think exert a great moral influence in Germany. Strikes are falling everywhere and I look with impatience for the action of the French and
